

Buying a TV?

What you really need to know.

If you're thinking about a new TV and all you're concerned with is its size, you'll soon find out there's a lot more choices to make. There will be terms like 4K, 8K, UHD, HDR and many more but it will boil down to whether it's an QLED or a OLED.

If you don't know much about current TVs, the December 12th Durham PC Users's Club meeting will help you. Join us when experts from Best Buy's Geek Squad explain the technology and help you make the right decision.

When: December 12th
